What is the CAG?

The group is formed by individuals who have used iCope services in Camden and have asked to be called advisors. The group is growing! It is run and organised by the following iCope staff members:

China Eziefula
Clinical Psychologist
(CAG chair)

Judy Leibowitz
Head of iCope
psychological
Therapies Service

Ella Chandler
Honorary Assistant
Psychological Practitioner

Shirley Lo
Honorary Assistant
Psychological Practitioner

Our aim is to involve as many people who have used Camden iCope services in helping us plan, shape and co-produce the services that we offer. We encourage people from all ages and all community groups to join this group.

What are the benefits of being an iCope Advisor?

- Use your knowledge and experiences to help us shape our service for the better!
- Be rewarded for involvement in interviewing and recruiting iCope staff
- Influence change in the NHS by sharing your views with politicians, members of parliament (MPs), commissioners and Trust directors
- Improve and co-produce iCope services through consultation with us in iCope and our NHS Trust
- Help to reduce stigma and misunderstanding about mental health through mental health promotion in the local community and nationally
- Learn about and engage with local community events, businesses and partners
- Strengthen your CV and have fun meeting new people along the way 😊

When and where do we meet?

Our meetings have now moved online via Microsoft Teams every 6-8 weeks for the foreseeable future. We have combined our Camden and Islington advisory groups for these meetings.
